UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
v.
ANGELO EFTHIMIATOS

INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges:

1. At all times relevant to the indictment:

a. The Federal Aviation Administration (“FAA”), an agency of the United States Department of Transportation, was responsible for the safety of all persons occupying and operating domestic aircraft. This agency was further responsible for certifying and regulating the pilots of civil aircraft. The FAA discharged this responsibility by issuing regulations that, among other things, determine the qualifications of domestic pilots. Specifically in order to lawfully pilot a civil aircraft, an individual must obtain an FAA Pilot Certificate.

b. On or about July 1, 2014, the FAA revoked ANGELO EFTHIMIATOS’s pilot certificate, number 3212215. The revocation order advised ANGELO EFTHIMIATOS that no future application for an airman’s certificate would be accepted by the FAA and that his certificate was revoked for life.

c. Between in or about January 2018 and in or about March 2018, on at least four separate occasions, ANGELO ETHIMIATOS purchased fuel for aircraft in preparation for flight or after landing at the Rutland-Southern Vermont Regional Airport (RUT) in North Clarendon, Vermont. The fuel purchases included purchases for a Piper aircraft with tail number N4563F.

d. In the Spring of 2018, N4563F made multiple trips of short duration, often traveling late at night between small airports like Newport State Airport in Rhode Island (UUU), Nantucket Airport in Nantucket, MA (ACK) and Rutland-Southern Vermont Regional Airport (RUT) after those airports had closed. ANGELO EFTHIMIATOS acted as a pilot for at least some of these trips.

2. Between on or about April 9, 2018 and on or about April 10, 2018, in the District of Vermont and elsewhere, the defendant ANGELO EFTHIMIATOS knowingly and willfully served in any capacity as an airman without an airman's certificate authorizing him to serve in that capacity, in that he piloted N4563F from Nantucket, MA (ACK) to North Clarendon, Vermont (RUT).
